

"MEN MUST WORK AND WOMEN WEEP." Mrs. W. J. Steel, an English girl married to an American, and Mrs. William Julius with baby, an American, widowed by ZR-2 disaster. C. N. P.

UPHOLDING SOVIET LEADER. Lenin's cavalry bodyguard was photographed drawn up before the Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow during the sessions of the Third Internationale. Lenin himself fears the dread Extraordinary Commission, the guards of which are seen sitting and standing by the freight car. Some of these guards are men, some are women. They are all relentless, and they dress in similar garments. Kadel & Herbert

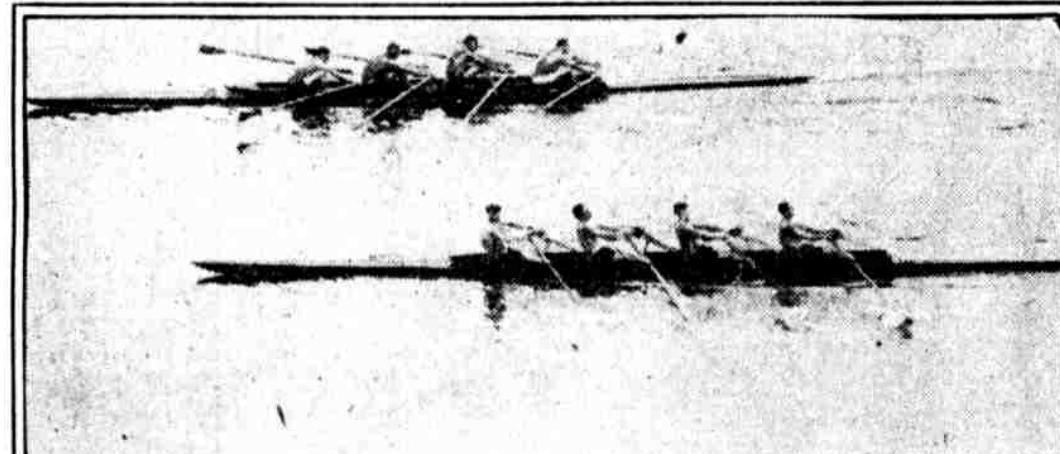

MISS GLORIA GOULD danced in glorious fashion the Spanish fandango at a charity affair at Spring Lake, N. J., in aid of the Ann May Hospital. C. N. P.

OFF FOR ENGLAND. Sailing on the George Washington from New York were Kermit Roosevelt, left; J. E. Willard, ex-Ambassador to Spain; Mrs. Philander C. Knox, Senator Knox. C. N. P.

SUGAR CORN FOR SWEET GIRLS is one of the attractions at the Philadelphia County Fair at Byberry this year. Far into the background has been placed the time-honored hot dog. In its place is the succulent vegetable. The animal kingdom has not been overlooked, however, and here we see a Holstein bull and a small boy gravely regarding each other. Ledger Photo Service

DR. AUSTIN O'MALLEY talks on future of white race on Editorial Page. C. N. P.

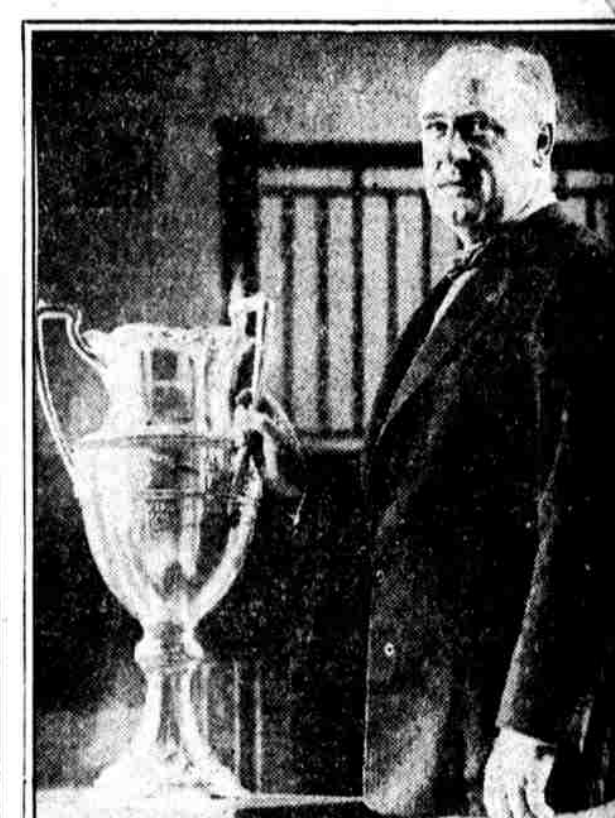

WINNING THE JUNIOR QUADRUPLE SCULLS. The Pennsylvania Barge Club furnished one of the big thrills of the Middle States regatta championships on the Schuylkill yesterday afternoon when it beat the hard-rowing Malta Club by just about a foot. L. P. S.

"FAR NORTH" FLOAT to be seen in the big Atlantic City pageant tomorrow and Thursday. The workmen are putting on the finishing touches. Six ice-skating girls will ride on it in the parade. L. P. S.

FREDERICK BERNARD and his brother Billy, of 1423 Mount Vernon street, watching the Labor Day parade. The big pipes are not really loaded. L. P. S.

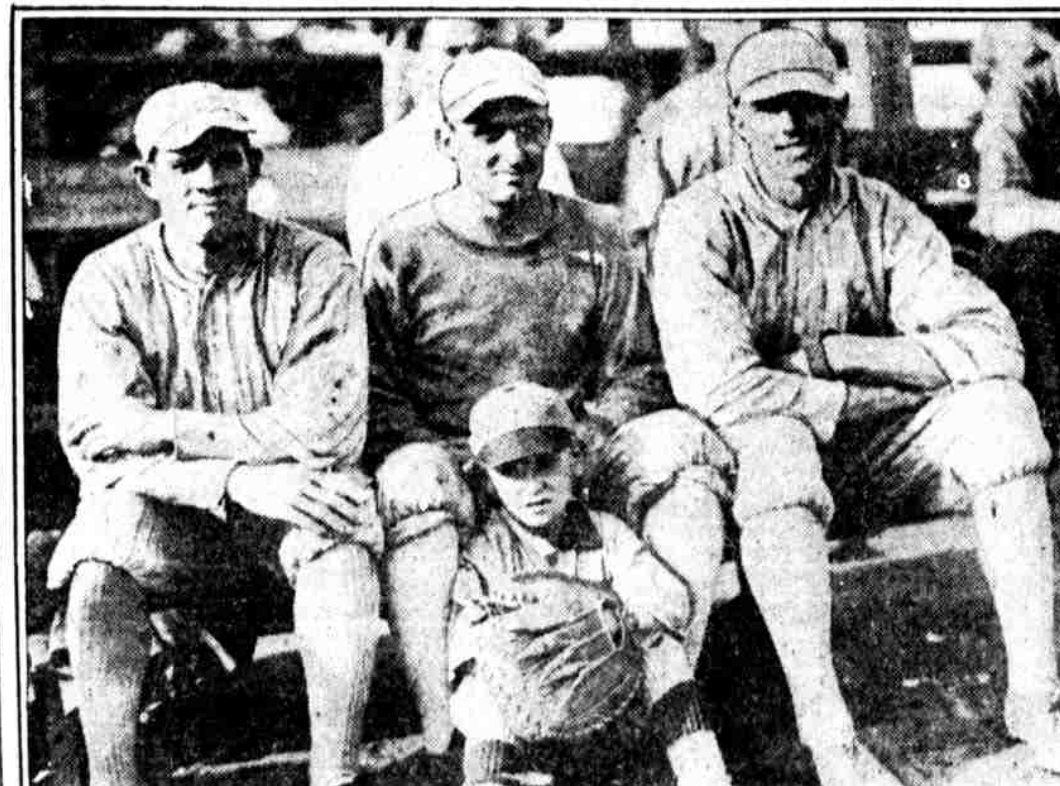

THOMAS P. ENDICOTT with the silver cup to be given the winner of the rolling-chair contest in Atlantic City's pageant this week. Ledger Photo Service

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

POWER SEWING MACHINE operated by Miss Mary Kist, of 1024 Washington avenue, who sews 5000 bags daily at the Philadelphia Bag Company, 84 Tasker street. Ledger Photo Service

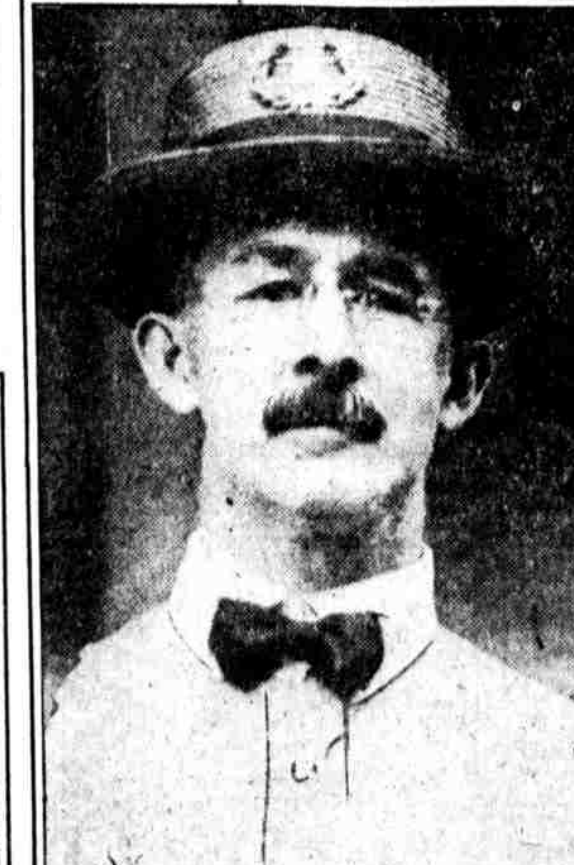

THREE MAINSTAYS of the Shanahan Catholic Club ball team and Rox Macalier, the mascot. This is one of the most formidable amateur clubs in the city. Jack Fahey, the catcher, on the right; then Jim Bonner, manager, and Walt Mackin, pitcher. L. P. S.

LOOKS LIKE A PAGEANT. But looks are deceiving. Sir Arthur Griffith-Boscawen, the British Minister of Agriculture, married his private secretary at a London church. This is part of a group that confronted the newly-weds when they left the edifice. Central News Photo

MAIL!

SAMUEL HUSTED, 5831 North Twelfth st. Has been in service 20 years. Route: Fifth to Sixth street, Market to Arch. Ledger Photo Service

SHE CAN SERVE 'EM. Miss Grace Desmond on the courts at Kingsessing Recreation Center. Ledger Photo Service

FRANK J. HIGGINS is seen cleaning his midiron at Cedarbrook. Ledger Photo Service